CONTRACTORS—Congratulations to Schwass who have been successful in winning the contract for the refurbishment of the buildings on the new site.

Drilling—be prepared for some noise in the upcoming week as the contractors need to drill 200+ holes (WOW!) in preparation for the arrival of the Boulcott Building.

We are told it won't be as noisy as the tree felling but there may be some disruption with noise so please be patient for a short while—after this week most of the noise will be contained to inside the building.
