

My Holiday

My holiday in Auckland was so awesome and I was the one that initiated the organisation with Moira and June.

The Cerebral Palsy Society invited us three at Laura Fergusson Community to their 60th Anniversary Celebration on the Saturday 12th March 2011.

Nicola Dunleavy, Grant Hewitt and I took Moira, June and Rachel to help us with our cares. On Thursday 10th March we arrived at Auckland Airport at 3 pm, we went to Auckland International Youth Hostel to check into our room that I shared with Rachel. We unpacked some important medications then we went to a restaurant for tea.

On Friday morning and afternoon we went for a walk around the harbour then we went on the Ferry to the North Shore of Auckland where my South African friend Kim Sutherland lives. June and I got on the Bus to where the Bus stops and then walked to Rivera Place where I went to stay at my friend's place for the night. We phoned our ex-directors of Pevensey Place and a few friends that night, almost two hours, and I went to bed after that. I really enjoyed myself.

Next morning, I woke late and had my shower, got dressed and was fed by my friend Kim's caregiver. Got the taxi back to the hostel by 11:30 am; I enjoyed staying at my friend Kim's house very much. We went to the Festival Garden for a couple of hours, we had lunch then went back to the Hostel and had a shower and dressed up for the dinner party. Our taxi came to take us to Auckland War Memorial Museum at 4:30 pm for a drink and we were at table no 25 - with our names on table. Before dinner there was a speech from the Chairman of the Cerebral Palsy Society. Then our dinners came out and we had a disco afterwards. We went back to the hostel at 10:30 pm.

On Sunday 13th March, we went to the Festival Garden to see a show called Vietnamese Water Puppets for the morning. I had a phone call on my cell phone from another friend Sharon who wanted to see me around the corner from the Festival Garden. We met her and went to the Sky Tower with June, Nicola and Rachel. We had something to drink and eat first then we went to the shop and I bought something for my Mom's and my fridge. Then we went back to the Hostel and played games but I can't remember what the game is called.

The next day, we went in a hurry to the Railway Station in Auckland to get our ticket and got in the train to go to the shopping centre. I bought a bag from Strandbags and then we had lunch there. We went to Kelly Tarttons for the afternoon and we had a fabulous time. After that we went back to the hostel to pack our cases.

The last day we packed our cases at the last minute before we went to the Railway Station. Moira bought our tickets and we got on the train and went to Laura Fergusson Hostel in Auckland which I asked to see. We went back to the Auckland Internation Hostel to have our lunch and then we got in the taxis and drove to the Auckland Airport to get our Air tickets. We arrived at Wellington airport at 4:30 pm and we took June to her place then we went back to Wellington Laura Fergusson Hostel.
